Sea View pavilion, on Johnson's Point, owned by H. L. Thomas, of Rockland, burned to the ground, Saturday evening.

The first was discovered about nine o'clock and the building was soon ablaze.

The pavilion was erected last year at an expense of about $300. It was insured in Cochran & Son's agency for $500.

The contents were uninsured and were probably worth about $300. The fire was understood to be of incendiary origin.

They are having exciting times down on Long Island, near Swan's Island, says the Rockland Courier-Gazette. Several raids have been made in the rum shops and three people are under arrest for liquor selling.

They will be tried at the October term of court at Ellsworth. One night last week $25 worth of hake sounds were stolen from the fish house of C. B. Vinal.

A new corporation called the Rockland & Ellsworth Steamship Company was organized Saturday at the residence of F.
Pierce, Esq., in Rockland. The capital stock is $200,000 and the corporation is to take the place of the Bluehill and Kribb lines.

The following horses have been entered for a racing race at the Knox County Fair, to be held in Rockland, next week: Arab, owned by H. L. Thomas, of Rockland, (this horse won a race in three straight heats at the State Fair, at Lewiston); Ganyemed owned by G. B. Ingraham, of Rockland; and a third owned by Nye. These three are believed to be the fastest pacers in the State, and will make an interesting contest.

The racing race will take place the last day of the fair, Friday.

Fairs are held at Bristol, September 27th, 28th and 29th; and at Danvers, October 1st, 2nd and 3rd, and the latter being the last of the season.

The corn factory at Bristol seems to be a sure thing. A company has located there and farmers are getting ready for business next season.

At the twenty-first annual session of the American Pomological Society, held in Boston last week, Hon. George B. Sawyer, of Wisconsin, was elected vice president.

The handsome grey stallion Arab, which won three straight heats in the racing race at the State Fair, at Lewiston, last week, is owned by J. C. Spaulding of North Haven, and is owned by Mr. Hastings of Danvers.

The time of the heats was:
2:30, 2:50 and 2:55, respectively.

The farm buildings of Charles H. Fox, Jr., situated on the Buxton road about one and a half miles from Bangor, were destroyed by fire on Wednesday afternoon, the 18th inst.

The fire caught from the chimney of the house, and spread to the barn and other buildings, and was a great loss.

The barn contained some twenty-five tons of hay, which was burned. A good stock of building materials, and the most of the farming implements, and a few pieces of furniture, were also destroyed.

Major S. Bann's wife, accompanied by Mrs. R. Whitney and her little daughter, were driving along near a high embankment, when the horse, which was being driven, fell backwards, and the carriage was overturned.

It is rumored that the piqueous Devil's Head, on the St. Croix, is to be purchased and improved by capitalists and converted into a summer resort.

The Machias Republican says the pack of quarter oil sardines, at Millbridge this season has been only 500 cases against 12, 000 cases for the corresponding time last year. No mackerel have been canned there this season, although preparations have been made for the same, but the fish didn't come in.

Capt. Pratt of the Dominion patrol boat "Vanguard," was asked the other day by one of our boatmen here, says the Eastport Sentinel, who often in the summer season takes pleasure parties for a sail and picnic among the islands and along the shores, if in case they wanted a fish for a chowder, they would be allowed to catch one near the New Brunswick shore, where they might be sailing. The captain replied, "No, you must not attempt it, your boat would be seized if you were caught in the act." The captain says he wouldn't make these mean little seizures, only that some of the fishermen on the other side point them out and he has to do it.

A dispatch from St. John's says: It appears that the basis of settlement in the Saco poisoning case, was that Mr. O'Connor shall pay Mr. Bennett the sum of $1,000, each side to pay its own costs.

NEWS FROM EASTERN MAINE.

East Corinth Letter.
(Regular Correspondence of Bangor and Courier.)

Mr. William B. Savage, one of our prosperous farmers, with his wife, has gone to Fort Angeles, Washington Territory, to spend the winter with Mrs. Savage's brother.

Miss May Wadleigh, of Lynn, Mass., has sold her house and lot, one mile below this village, to Mrs. Albra Hammond, late of Iowa.

George H. Smith, Esq., has recently been appointed administrator of the estate of his father-in-law, the late Capt. John Blanchard.

While Dr. J. D. Cochran was driving out to visit one of his patients a short time since, his horse, a very valuable animal, suddenly dropped dead in the road. It is supposed the horse broke a blood vessel.

Mr. Samuel Farmer, of South Portland, has just packed the boss cucumber from his vines. It measured thirteen and one fourth inches long, fourteen inches round and weighed four and one-half pounds.

The summer visitors to our quiet village this season, and the number has been larger than ever before, have all returned to their homes but Hon. Henry Norcross and his daughter, of Somerville, Mass., and they will stay this week.

Mr. Eliza Allen, of South Portland, a young farmer, prudently raised as good a crop of corn of his size, (one-half acre) as any one in town. It grew very thrifty and ripened well, one stalk of which measured nine and one-half feet.

Our Methodist friends gave a very excellent entertainment Tuesday evening at the Parker House Hall, which was well attended and enjoyed by all.

Hamden Letter.
(Regular Correspondence of Bangor and Courier.)

Miss Carrie Alden has gone to Winter-port to teach.

Capl. Horace Whitmore went to New York last Saturday. He goes as master of the schooner Sable Oliver, which sails in a few days for the West Indies.

Mr. Wilson Harding, a prominent citizen, died last week. The funeral occurred last Sunday forenoon, Rev. Mr. Dunn officiating.

Miss Annie Norris has gone to Manchester, N. H.

Miss Lou Rockwell is visiting friends in Levant.

Miss Little Whitmore met with quite a serious accident last Sunday afternoon.
She was thrown from a carriage and severely injured, but is rapidly recovering.

There was a reading at the Town Hall, Thursday evening, for the benefit of the Academy.

Milo Letter.
(Regular Correspondence of Bangor and Courier.)

The usual Baptist quarterly meeting was held in Union meeting house, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, with a large attendance.

E. G. Frost died on Sunday, the 15th, of a long sickness. He was a member of the G. A. R., also the Knights of Pythias, of Lewiston.

T. F. Monaghan's dancing school will be open on Saturday evening, at Chase's Hall.
Mr. Monaghan is liked here very well as a musician, and it is hoped his school will be a success.

Court week has called away a number of our citizens to Dover. One or two cases in which Milo parties are interested will be tried this term.

The G. A. R. Post proposed making an excursion to Katahdin Ironworks some time this month. Milo Cornet Band is expected to accompany them.

Mr. Willoughby Smith, an old citizen of this place, has just received a pension of $12.50 a month with back pay amounting to $1,250.50.

The barber shops of this town will be closed Sunday from this date.

Cattle show and fair one week from Wednesday. The fair will last but one day this year instead of two as heretofore.

Miss Hattie Gould, of Bangor, is spending a few days with friends in Milo.

Pittsfield Letter.
(Regular Correspondence of Bangor and Courier.)

The big motor was seen by a good many of our citizens and for several days was the sole topic of conversation.

The Free Baptist Society of this place are agitating the subject of building a church. Mr. C. C. Connor, of this village, has offered to give $1,000 for that purpose. The society has always worshipped in the Institute chapel, but they feel that a church is now needed in order to meet the growing wants of the society. The Sabbath school has recently added fifty valuable volumes to its library.

Brennan & Quinn's Sea Theatre Company is playing here this week to good houses.
